

Redeemed & Righteous!

Isaiah 51:11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

Isaiah 61:10a I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness..

2 Corinthians 5:21 For He (Jesus) has made Him to be sin (offering) for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Galatians 3:13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangs on a tree:

Psalms 107:2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy

Psalms 136:24 And has redeemed us from our enemies: for His mercy endureth for ever

Philippians 3:9 And be found in Him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Genesis 15:6 And he (Abraham) believed in the Lord; and He counted it to him for righteousness.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Ephesians 6:14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

Psalms 37:3-6 Trust in the Lord and do good; so shall you dwell in the land, and verily you shall be fed. Delight yourself also in the Lord: and He shall give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass and He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your judgment as the noonday.

1 Corinthians 1:30 But of Him are you in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

Hebrews 12:2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith;

1 Peter 1:3-25p Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fades not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time... 17. And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious Blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by Him do believe in God, that raised Him up from the dead, and gave Him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God... 25. But the Word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

Lessons From John 16:8

John 16:8-11 “And when He (The Holy Spirit) is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and you see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.”

There are several key lessons we can draw from John 16:8. The first is the importance of being open to the Holy Spirit's conviction in our lives. At times, we may feel resistant or reluctant to face the uncomfortable aspects of our character or behavior. However, embracing these moments can serve to strengthen our faith. We should remember that these times of conviction can lead to profound personal growth and transformation.

Another lesson we can glean is about the importance of righteousness in our lives. The desire for righteousness should be at the forefront of our hearts as we embody our Christian faith. Striving for righteousness reminds us that our actions matter, and they reflect our relationship with God. By allowing the Holy Spirit to guide us, we can aim for a life that demonstrates the love of Christ, impacting those around us positively.

Finally, we learn that judgment holds both a warning and an encouragement. While it may seem intimidating, it serves as a reminder of God's ultimate authority. Our lives are accountable, yet through Jesus, we are reminded that grace is always within reach. The knowledge of judgment encourages us to live our lives purposefully, leading us to love and serve others faithfully.

By internalizing these lessons, we can strive to be individuals who exemplify humility and integrity. So, when we feel that nudge or gentle correction from the Holy Spirit, let's respond with eagerness, knowing that it leads us toward a deeper relationship with God.

As we close our exploration of John 16:8, let us reflect on the beauty of the Holy Spirit's role in our lives. This verse is not merely about conviction or judgment; rather, it's a powerful reminder of God's immense love and desire for growth in each of us. We are encouraged to be both humbled and honored by the Holy Spirit's presence and action within us.

Understanding how the Holy Spirit works in regards to sin, righteousness, and judgment can help us navigate our faith journey with grace and confidence. We don't have to fear correction; instead, let's embrace it as an invitation to grow in our relationship with God. As we heed the whisper of the Spirit, may we experience His love and empowerment more deeply.
